In this survey, when we use the word "youth," we mean young people in grades six through twelve (or ages 11 to 18).

By "parents," we mean the main adults who are raising children or youth, regardless of whether they are biological parents, step- or adoptive parents, grandparents, or unrelated guardians.

And by "adults you know," we mean adults you are not related to: The adults outside your own family like teachers, neighbors, coaches, youth group leaders, or other adults you know but are not related to.
