TRAINING OF TRAINERS

PARENTING PARTNERS

PRACTICAL TOOLS FOR POSITIVE PARENTING

This interactive curriculum and training is based on the Developmental Assets®. Participants of the Training of Trainers learn to deliver the seven-session Parenting Partners: Practical Tools for Positive Parenting Workshop that builds parenting skills and confidence for parents to become positive leaders in their homes, their children's schools and their communities. Parents learn the power of building assets in their children to protect them from risky behaviors and promote healthy choices. In addition, because the parent workbooks are available in Spanish, Hmong and English, parents connect cross-culturally. In this 2-day training, your team will:

- Successfully organize and facilitate the seven-session Parenting Partners workshops;
- Form and sustain a presentation team for parenting partners workshops;
- Work effectively in a multi-lingual setting;
- Recruit parents;
- Develop parent leaders who can bring the assets message to their schools and communities; and
- Develop a follow-up support program for parents

Who Should Attend: 3-5 person team – teams can be made up of educators, parents, community members at large. (4 team minimum, does not have to be from the same school district)

Length: Two 7 1/2 hour days (includes lunch and breaks)

Price: $4500 for each 3-5 person team (price includes limited trainer travel)

Materials: (all materials included in price)

- Team Resource Kit: includes books, posters, handouts and all class presentation materials plus shipping ($700 value)
- A Trainer Tool Kit for each Facilitator plus shipping ($300 value/kit)
- 20 Parent Workbooks in the language of your choice (English, Spanish, Hmong) ($240 value)
